Fantastic Fashions

I love my Fantastic Fashions™! They are special because each one has a secret surprise I can use to defend Etheria® from that nasty Catra.® There are eight Fantastic Fashions to collect and they all fit on my Princess of Power® friends! Look out Catra!

Flight of Fancy™

This is what I like to wear when Crystal Swift Wind™ and I soar above the clouds of Etheria®. I'm ready for any adventure that comes my way. Just let Catra® make her mischief! I'll simply call to my magical sword and shield, and instantly, they'll fly to my side!

Fit to be Tied™

I think this fancy blue gown is perfect for dancing across the ballroom floor with Bow®! But little does he know my beautiful blue scarf is really a life-saving "rope." I can use it to rescue someone in trouble, even that nasty Catra®!

Flower Power™

I love strolling in my garden in this dress. The flowery shawl always makes me feel sunny. But let danger cross my path, and I've got flower power! The pretty posies on my shoulder pull out to push trouble away! Take that, Entrapta™!

Hold on to Your Hat™

This is a great outfit! It turns any party Catra®attends into a surprise party. When Catra starts in with her tricks, is she in for a surprise! My sparkly hat becomes a light-blinding shield. And the pretty parasol is really a cover for my sword!

Ready in Red™

Let the weather do its worst! I don't care. This soft furry skirt will protect me from the cold. And I can turn it inside out to protect me another way, as a suit of armor! The special cape doubles as a net, to trap Entrapta,™ or to save someone in trouble!

Rise & Shine™

I love to relax in my lacy lounging gown, but I'm always ready to defend Etheria.® Quick! Glimmer® is cornered by Catra® nearby. I must save her! Little does Catra know this lacy gown hides a sparkly suit of armor! I take off my robe and it's She-Ra® to the rescue! Watch out, Catra, here I come!

Veils of Mystery™

Don't you love surprises? I do! That's why I love this dress. Underneath these layers of veils, underneath the shimmering trim, is a special secret sword. So when trouble tries to take me by surprise, I can surprise it in return!

Deep Blue Secret™

Guess what! I have a secret map. A map of a world below the sea that leads to buried treasure! And if you promise not to tell a soul, I'll show you where the map is hidden. See, right here behind the blue fish shield that matches my beautiful blue gown! Now come with me in search of the secrets of the sea!
